In light of recent events, including the death of Abu Musab al-Zarqawi in Iraq, the apparent suicide deaths of three detainees at the U.S. naval base in Guantanamo, and clashes in Gaza/Israel, there is a possibility of anti-U.S. demonstrations. Remember, even demonstrations intended to be peaceful can turn confrontational and possibly escalate into violence. American citizens are therefore urged to avoid the areas of demonstrations if possible, and to exercise caution if within the vicinity of any demonstrations.

For the latest security information, Americans should regularly monitor the Department's web site at <http://travel.state.gov> where the current Worldwide Caution Public Announcement, Travel Warnings and Public Announcements can be found. Up-to-date information on security can also be obtained by calling 1-888-407-4747 toll free in the U.S., or, for callers outside the U.S. and Canada, a regular toll line at 1-202-501-4444. These numbers are available from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time, Monday through Friday (except U.S. federal holidays).

Americans living or traveling in Algeria are encouraged to register with the U.S. Embassy through the State Department's travel registration website, <https://travelregistration.state.gov>, so that they can obtain updated information on travel and security within Algeria. Americans without Internet access may register directly with the U.S. Embassy, located at 4 Chemin Cheikh Bachir El-Ibrahimi, B.P. 408 (Alger-Gare) 16000, in the capital city of Algiers. The Embassy can be reached at telephone [213] (21) 691-425/255/186; fax [213] (21) 69-39-79.
